DATED: 05-4-2007

Between:

B.Ratnamamba

… Petitioner.

And

The Divisional Manager,
Divisional Office-II,
United India Insurance Co., Ltd.,
Vishakapatnam.

And another.

… Respondents.

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.NAGARJUNA REDDY

WRIT PETITION No.19334 of 1997

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed for the following relief:

> "….Hon'ble Court may be pleased to issue an order, direction or a writ particularly one in the nature of 'Mandamus' declaring the order No.MR.Per.811/97, dated 2.6.1997 of the 3rd respondent is illegal, arbitrary and violative of the rules laid down in the promotion policy for SC staff and consequently direct the respondents (i) to promote the petitioner as Assistant Administrative Officer (ii) to give effect to the promotion with retrospective effect and pass such other relief…"

Despite posting the case under the caption 'for dismissal' none appears for the petitioner. The writ petition is therefore liable to be dismissed for default.

Even otherwise the writ petition deserves to be dismissed for the reason that Miss Uma Devi, learned counsel for the respondents placed before this Court letter dated 16.5.3001 addressed by the petitioner to the Assistant General Manager, Personal Department, United India Insurance Company Limited wherein she has confirmed her promotion-cum-posting order dated 30.4.2001 to the cadre of Assistant Administrative Officer and her posting at Branch Office, Nellore. She has also expressed in her letters that she wishes to withdraw the W.P.No.19334 of 1997 and W.P.No.1226 of 2001 along with C.C.No.540 of 2001. A copy of the letter dated 16.5.2001 addressed to the learned counsel for the petitioner is also produced by the learned counsel for the respondents and the contents of the said letter reveal that she instructed the learned counsel for the petitioner to withdraw the writ petition in view of the promotion given to her. The said letters are taken on record.

For the aforementioned reasons, the writ petition is dismissed.
